WHAT CAN I SAY?

Dear friend

I'm just probing a warning to you OK, I'm a Secret Agent in one of the country's security ministries, dear friend, very soon will be killed but it will be considered in the news as a suicide.

YOUR murder will be done to help the United States closer to his family for more important information.

I am just saying that because I am the one to fulfill it, if you want to accept it, but I know I told this LUCKY Oak, REGGAE TOP musician in South Africa, but thought I was joking but he was dead.

YOU NEVER go to the police, because if you WHETHER your protection you will be killed and VERY FAST.THE the only way to survive this is to work with me so that I can give you full information about this and how you will get HEAD But this plan is, you know, it is very close to YOU.IF you go to the police, DEAD YOU.

Today only agentdmitry_malakov@rocketmail.com contact me through this email

And tell me how much you appreciate life so that I can help you, I DONT LIKE THIS job, but I am trained in IT, If You Ever streamline the activities of the police I will know and I will do everything I DONT WISH to which is to Kill You

WAGSTAFF FOR PREZ IN 2012

Hi Ol Buddy,

No one has ever asked me for my opinions, and programs I would like to see furthered, should I ever run for president of the United States Though it's been some time since you solicited an opinion from your readers- I'll jump on it anyway.

First, let me state that if I were really being considered as a contender, I would be able to say none or very little of what I'm about to suggest. Second, I realize the simplistic and naive assumptions I make here, and the improbability of implementing any of it.

Note: It's been some time since I wrote this stuff down. I realize the list does not stop at # 18 but you didn't ask for a treatise after all.

Presidential Platform conjured by Dave Wagstaff

1. Reinforce through legislative enactment, constitutional safeguards for the people.

2. Outlaw once and for all the aggressive preemptive use of military might.
3. Restore checks and balance to the three branches of government.
4. Eliminate special interest group use of money to influence legislation and elections.
5. Restore rights to the family concerning the well-being of the children.
6. Make education compulsory through state law, and duo-faceted. Trades education for everyone, coupled with academic pursuits in later years.
7. Transform the judicial system to mete out quick and fair punishment. Therein lies the secret to crime determent.(Thus eliminating the argument for capital punishment.)
8. Move toward involving national politics and resources in only three pursuits: National security, accidental and old age security of the citizenry, and trade relations with other countries.
9. Make compulsory through state law, every citizen's responsibility to at least provide for themselves and those they are guardian of.
10. Force penal systems to become self sustaining.
11. Create penalties for failure to vote.
- 11-A. Create systems whereby citizens can gain additional voting weight, through recognition of accomplishments in civic service, religion, education, business, military and other endeavors.
12. Realign the executive, legislative, and judicial to reflect these new realities.
13. Empower the people with control and use of taxes.
14. Rearrange Home Land Security into two separate and equal entities, Department of War and Department of Peace
15. Outlaw on the world stage all nuclear weapons, and destroy all such weapons in existence.
16. R and D the rail system to be competitive with the airlines for speed and reliability.
17. Outlaw Presidential signing statements that undermine the rule of law.
18. Create an entirely new way of gleaning the most competent and trustworthy people as leaders.

Much can be said on this subject. Maybe sometime later.
