“Jim Stiles holds up a mirror to those of us living in the American West, exposing issues we may not want to face. We are all complicit in the shadow side of growth. His words are born not so much out of anger but a broken heart.

He says he writes elegies for the landscape he loves, that he is “hopelessly clinging to the past.” I would call Stiles a writer from the future. Brave New West is a book of import because of what it chooses to expose.”

-- Terry Tempest Williams author of - RED - Passion and Patience in the Desert

KEN SLEIGHT...Along the Trail

photographs by EDNA FRIDLEY

Edna Fridley accompanied Ken Sleight on more than 40 trips, from 1962 to 1979. Many of them were into the canyons of the Colorado River, including this journey down the Escalante River in the mid-60s.

Bronzed and lean as a Colorado River rat, if there was any doubt before to the identity of Abbey's "Seldom Seen" Smith, there shouldn't be now. (Look for more incredible photographs by Edna in future Zephyrs.)
