

"Notes on Reno"

continued...

'Hank drunk, bellowing like a bull in front of Mrs. Ryans door. Slept on couch in hall foyer.'

'Bill---truck driver told us he puts 7 1/2 - 8 tons on a 1 1/2 ton Chev. truck, scrap metal delivered to Sacramento and Frisco...'

'Sunday and New Years' Eve, the gang at the Midway all drinking and drunk. Ray and Marcus consumed about 2 qts whiskey before going to town to celebrate. Jack dancing with little Janet also Marcus while Wurtitzer played.'

'Sam Keyes stole $85.00 worth of goods from J.P Penny's and while working there for a few weeks, Xmas rush. Lucille helped carry merchandise away for him.'

Line. Hoboed when young for three years, saw man pushed between cars, another killed in couplers. One evening, he helped sew initials on bedding in Mrs. Ryan's room. Marie and Larie helping.

Jack Kausman gambling. Won $40. then lost it and more.

Joe Levin arrives from Boston, Mass., now divorcee. Spent some time with him. Wrote contract agreement for him.

Sam Keyes stole $85.00 worth of goods from J.P. Penny's, while working there for few weeks, Xmas rush. Lucille helped carry merchandise away for him.

M.C. drove to Lovelock on case. Took Jack Boyce with him, here for divorce from Alberta, Canada. On way home M.C. turned around 3 times on ice and skidded into ditch, but no damage. Boyce helped push car out, fell in mud.

Mr. Wells, re-married his wife!

Don Armstrong, Jack Kausman and Joe Levin talking about robberies and poisonings from lead and points. All in Mrs. Ryan's room. Don bought half-pint whiskey and Coca Colas. Men all had highballs, Mrs. Ryan and I, soft drinks.

M.C. operated on for fistula by noted Reno surgeon. Battered again, went to second doctor, operated on again, piece of broken knife blade from former operation extracted. Recently he underwent a third operation.

Don Armstrong explaining about lumbering.

Mrs. Ryan and I took a trip to Pyramid Lake. Saw a coyote cross the highway on the way. Beautiful trip.

Went to movie "Beau Geste" with Jack Kausman. "Pohgekin" Indian word for "white death"; a shrub covered with frost or tiny balls of snow.

Mrs. Motakin's uncle purchased Bowers Mansion in 1905 for $1200. Her brother now operates a resort place there and clears seven to eight thousand dollars a year.

Wrote letters for Joe Levin, to parole officer!

M.C. had over 100 divorce cases in Carson City in 1939 & in Reno and some in Virginia City. Had 15¢ all together. Contacts all over.

Went to show with Mrs. Ryan. Then to Big Grant for sandwich and coca cola. Visited Mary in Verdome Apartments. Met strip-tease gypsy girl there. Said she was injured by Cory Grant in "Gunga Din" as she

'Mr. Wells, re-married his wife!'

To read "Notes" in its entirety, visit the WordPress version of this issue...