Notes on Paper

a poem

by Damon Falke

In Notes on Paper, Falke walks us through the landscape of one man's mind, which contains both his past and an awareness of our common future. From within private memories the narrator reaches out to us with 'we' and 'you', and each spare line invokes the hope that we, like him, are worthy of return to our most longed for places. And if to return is not our fate, and really it never can be, the narrator bids us survey our own memories, taking time in the present for the winds, and the words, that move the world.

ANNE SNOWDEN

THE NEW IMMIGRANTS

American Success Stories

A new wave of pioneering immigrants has rushed headlong into Arizona the last forty years. Mexican entrepreneurs, Asian market and restaurant owners, Indian software engineers, European winemakers, and African community leaders, have all thrived in a rich atmosphere of business opportunity.

Anne Snowden Crosman interviewed hundreds of immigrants, from Flagstaff and the Verde Valley to Phoenix and Tucson. To each, she asked the question, "What is your secret of survival and success?"

They all answered, "Hope, hard work, persistence, and determination." "And why did you come to America?" she asked.

In unison, they replied, "For the happiness to live in a free country."

Anne Snowden Crosman, an Arizonan and world citizen, writes about people and social issues. She is the author of Young At Heart: Aging Gracefully With Attitude, winner of the Benjamin Franklin Award. She has been afternoon host of All Things Considered at KNAU, Arizona Public Radio in Flagstaff, and a CBS and NBC Radio Network correspondent in America and abroad. She lives in Sedona, Arizona, where she teaches memoir-writing at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute and volunteers for the Humane Society. She has established a foundation to help send young people to college.

Spider Woman's Daughter

By Hillerman, Anne

Anne Hillerman, the talented daughter of bestselling author Tony Hillerman, continues his popular Leaphorn and Chee series with Spider Woman's Daughter, a Navajo Country mystery, filled with captivating lore, startling suspense, bold new characters, vivid color, and rich Southwestern atmosphere.

Navajo Nation Police Officer Bernadette Manualito witnesses the cold-blooded shooting of someone very close to her. With the victim fighting for his life, the entire squad and the local FBI office are hell-bent on catching the gunman. Bernie, too, wants in on the investigation, despite regulations forbidding eyewitness involvement. But that doesn't mean she's going to sit idly by, especially when her husband, Sergeant Jim Chee, is in charge of finding the shooter.

Bernie and Chee discover that a cold case involving his former boss and partner, retired Inspector Joe Leaphorn, may hold the key. Digging into the old investigation, husband and wife find themselves inching closer to the truth...and closer to a killer determined to prevent justice from taking its course.
