

Herb Ringer's AMERICAN WEST

With his father JOSEPH RINGER, in Cincinnati, Ohio, 1913

HERB'S AMAZING LIFE...

"...in the blink of an eye."

COLORADO SPRINGS, 1917. Joseph was a musician and was employed to play a summer concert series at the city park. It was Herb's first trip West

A visit to Kentucky. Herb and his mother near HIGH BRIDGE on the Kentucky River. Summer 1922.

Note the locomotive train passing over the bridge.

Herb's first job in the grocery business. 1937. Ringoes, New Jersey

HERB RINGER came West from his home in New Jersey in 1939. Camera in hand, Herb captured the American West, from the Canadian Border to the Rio Grande and from the Big Sur coast to the High Plains.

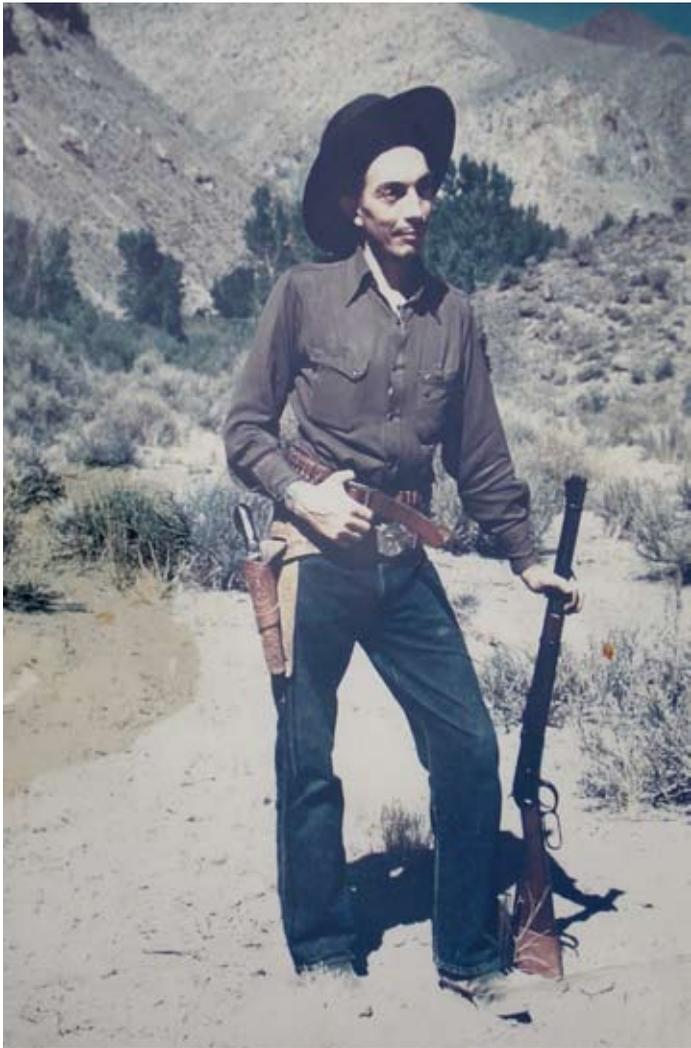

We believe Herb's collection of Life in the West is one of the finest. His work has been published in The Zephyr for 20 years. I am pleased finally, to offer Herb's photographs in color. We are also building a new 'album' of his work, elsewhere on this site.

My dear friend died on December 11, 1998...JS

HERB, JOSEPH & SADIE RINGER.
Ringoes, NJ
1935

Herb in Nevada, in full cowboy regalia.
1941

Atop MT EVANS
in Colorado.
Late 1960s.

HERB & JIM,
Fallon, Nevada.
1994

ARCHES
NATIONAL PARK.
Devils Garden
Campground.
site #21
Summer 1981

JULY 1998. My last image of Herb, at his trailer in Fallon, Nevada. His home for more than 40 years. He died four months later, on december 11, 1998.

